AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made by and between Infinity Systems Engineering LLC (Prime Contractor), InDyne, Inc., Integrity Communications Solutions, Inc., and Rome Research Corporation (Sub-Contractors of Infinity) (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and the I.B.E.W., AFL-CIO, Local Union No. 543 (hereinafter referred to as the Union).

Duration

This Agreement and the provisions hereof shall remain in full force and be binding as defined in Article 27 of this Agreement.

WITNESSETH:

NOW, THEREFORE, it is agreed as follows:

ARTICLE 1 - UNION RECOGNITION

1.1 Recognition

The Company hereby recognizes the Union as the exclusive representative of the employees in the bargaining unit defined in Section 1.2 for the purpose of collective bargaining in respect to wages, benefits, hours of employment, and other conditions of employment. It is expressly understood that this act of recognition is not intended to imply, nor is any third party to infer, any rights or obligations which would attach to either of the parties hereto arising from such act except as specifically provided in this Article.

1.2 Bargaining Unit

The Company bargaining unit consists of all hourly rated operations, logistics, order clerks, maintenance, administrative travel clerks, and support employees employed by the Company at the 10 SOPS facilities located at

- Point Mugu, California,
- Schriever SFB Colorado Springs, Colorado,
- Prospect Harbor, Maine, and
- Finegayan, Guam,

established under the Navy Contract N0017819D7817/N0024421F3022 and any addendums to this contract, but excluding office clerical, guards, supervisors, managerial and all other employees as defined in the National Labor Relations Act, as amended.

1.3 Distribution of Agreement

The Company agrees to furnish a copy of the CBA to its bargaining unit employees upon request.

1.4 Applicability

All language contained in this CBA is applicable to all bargaining unit locations outlined in Section 1.2 unless specifically noted in the CBA by referencing the specific location.

ARTICLE 2 - UNION SECURITY

2.1 Union Shop

All employees presently covered by this Agreement and all employees hired or reinstated during the term of this Agreement shall be, or become, members of this Union as a condition of employment within thirty-one (31) days of the signing of this Agreement or the date of hire, whichever is the later, to the extent permitted by applicable law(s).

In the event that any employee fails to acquire his/her membership in accordance with the provisions of this Section, the Union shall notify the Company in writing. Such written notice shall constitute a request to the Company to discharge said individual employee within forty-eight (48) hours (Saturdays, Sundays, days off and Holidays excluded). Such discharge would be for failure to maintain membership in the Union, as defined in the National Labor Relations Act, as amended.

2.2 Dues Deduction and Check-off

The Companies, upon written request from a member of the bargaining unit on an agreed form, shall deduct from the first pay of each month the Union dues and initiation fees as specified by the Union and will remit the same to the Union by the end of the month in which the deduction is made. The union members pay the full monthly dues for any shifts worked in a calendar month.

- (a) After receipt of the Authorization for Check-off of dues form, of which the Union will send a copy to the Company, the Union membership dues for a calendar month shall be deducted from the first pay received by the employee in the succeeding months in which the employee has sufficient net earnings to cover the Union membership dues. In the case of employees returning to work after layoff or leaves of absence, who previously have properly executed authorization from the check-off of dues forms, deduction is made for membership dues provided herein.
- (b) In cases where a deduction is made which duplicates a payment already made to the Union by an employee, or where a deduction is not in conformity with the provisions of the International Union Constitution and By-Laws, refunds to the employee will be made by the Union with notification to the Company.
- (c) Deductions for any calendar month shall be remitted to the designated Financial Officer of the Union, no later than the last day of the month in which the deduction is made. The Company shall furnish the designated Officer of the Union with a list of those for whom deductions have been made and the amounts of such deductions monthly.

2.3 IBEW-COPE Community on Political Education

The Company agrees to provide for voluntary employee payroll deductions to the IBEW-COPE fund when such employee is within the scope of this bargaining unit as covered by this Agreement and such employee properly executes an authorization on a form as agreed to by the parties. Union members may request this form from the Business Manager. This voluntary amount is in addition to the monthly union membership dues.

2.4 Indemnification

In consideration of the Company's agreement to the Union Shop and the check-off of the Union dues, the Union hereby agrees to indemnify and save the Company harmless from any liability, cost or expense arising out of the entering into or enforcement of such provisions.

ARTICLE 3 - STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

There shall be no strike, sympathy strike, work stoppage, slow down, sit down, refusal to work, boycott, picketing, or any other form of strike or curtailment of work by the Union or its representatives or members during the term of this Agreement.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Company agrees not to cause or permit a lockout to occur during the term of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Except as expressly and specifically limited by this Agreement, the Management of the Company has the sole authority over the workforce, including, but not limited to the services performed, the location of the workforce, the processes and materials to be purchased, the schedules and hours of work, the rights to hire, assign work, promote, demote, upgrade, downgrade, layoff, recall and transfer employees, to establish rules of conduct, to reassign, discharge or discipline for just cause, and to maintain efficiency and capability of employees are the sole and exclusive rights and responsibilities of the Company; subject only to such regulations and restrictions governing the exercise of these rights as are expressly provided in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 - SUBCONTRACTING

It is understood that as far as practical, the Company will use its own employees in the conduct of its business. However, it is also understood that in the conduct of its business, the Company may have the need or requirement to subcontract the performance of some aspects of its operations not covered in this Agreement. The Company may enter into such contracts as long as it is not coincident with or will result in the laying off bargaining unit employees or a reduction of the bargaining unit. It is understood that prior to entering into such contracts, the representatives of the Company and the Union will meet for the purpose of discussing the feasibility of having the work performed by members of the bargaining unit or to establish new classifications within the bargaining unit.

During the term of this Agreement the Company agrees that it will not subcontract work for the purposes of evading its obligations under this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - NOTICE OF RESIGNATION

Employees must give at least fifteen (15) calendar days' notice of resignation and work the last day of notification to be eligible for rehire with the Company.

ARTICLE 8 - SECURITY RESPONSIBILITY

8.1 Security Clearance

It is understood that if a security clearance is required by an agency of the United States Government in order to perform work in the job classifications covered by this Agreement, such security clearance shall be a condition of continued employment with the Company. Such employees shall be subject to investigation for security clearance under regulations prescribed by the Department of Defense or any other authorized and appropriate agency of the United States Government. A denial, non-approval, or withdrawal of such clearance by such governmental agency shall be just cause for discharge or suspension, provided, however, that if the employee diligently pursues an appeal to the appropriate agency of the Government for revocation of such denial or withdrawal and, if upon review by such agency, clearance is granted or reinstated, the employee shall be reinstated in accordance with his/her seniority.

8.2 Security Clearance Liability

It is understood that there shall be no liability, financial or otherwise, on the part of the Company for any discharge or suspension growing out of a denial, non-approval or withdrawal of a security clearance. However, nothing in this Agreement shall preclude the individual from pursuing any legal remedy he/she may have against any person or organization outside the Company by virtue of his/her suspension or discharge under this clause.

8.3 Security Clearance Denial

Discharge or suspension because of denial, non-approval, or withdrawal of a security clearance by the appropriate governmental agency shall not be subject to the grievance and/or arbitration procedure.

ARTICLE 9 - UNION REPRESENTATION

9.1 Business Representative

The Business Manager of the Union or his/her Representative shall be allowed access to any shop or job at any reasonable time where union members are employed under the terms of this Agreement upon proper notification to a representative of Management designated by the Company provided that permission is granted by the Government. It is understood that the Business Manager may be limited to certain areas on all Military bases covered by this Agreement due to stringent security clearances that he has not been authorized to enter.

9.2 Stewards

Stewards will be appointed by the Union at each site. All Stewards shall be subject to the same rules and regulations affecting all other employees covered by this Agreement. The Union is responsible for notifying the Office of the Company in writing of the identity of all Stewards so appointed. The Company recognizes that adequate and proper Union Representation is essential to proper administration of the terms of this Agreement. As such, the Steward shall be allowed a reasonable amount of time to conduct Union business during working hours provided that the Union Business does not interfere with the daily work schedule. Reasonable amount of time shall be defined by the Program Manager or his designee with due consideration to program work requirements and the nature of the Union business.

9.3 Employee Request for a Steward

The Company shall not deny an employee's request that a Union representative be present at a meeting which the employee reasonably believes may result in disciplinary action against him/her.

9.4 Seniority List

A list of employees by job classification, rate of pay, and seniority date will be supplied to the Union upon request.

ARTICLE 10 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

10.1 Grievance

All grievances and arbitrations shall be conducted with the Prime Contractor. If a grievance or dispute should arise between the Company and the Union or between the Company and one of its own employees or a group of its employees with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of employment, or other conditions of employment, such grievance or dispute shall be taken up only in accordance with the procedure outlined herein. Any employee wishing to present a grievance may do so personally to his or her supervisor or may request the Union Representative to act in his/her behalf. If the matter cannot be resolved with the supervisor during this informal meeting, it shall be filed for processing according to the following procedure.

10.2 Step One

The Grievance shall be reduced to writing on International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers GRIEVANCE FORM "Year", setting forth the following:

- (a) A statement of the grievance and the facts upon which it is based.
- (b) A statement of the remedy or corrective action requested of the Company.
- (c) The Article and section of the Agreement claimed to have been violated.

If an employee personally presents a grievance to the Company, the Union shall be notified and provided with a copy of the grievance and all relevant documentation provided to the grievant and may be present during all grievance proceedings. Such written grievance shall be presented to the Company and the Program Manager, within ten (10) calendar days after the employee was aware of the acts or omission of the Company which are the basis of the grievance. The Company shall answer the grievance in writing within seven (7) calendar days following receipt of the grievance.

10.3 Step Two

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved in Step One of this procedure, the grievant may request a meeting via e-mail to the Company on the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers GRIEVANCE FORM "Year", within ten (10) calendar days after receipt of the Company's answer on Step One, above.

The Company, Program Manager, and the appropriate Supervisor involved will meet with the Steward and the Union Business Manager or Business Representative, within ten (10) calendar days following receipt of the appeal to Step Two. A written response to the grievance will be given by the Company to the Business Manager and the Steward within ten (10) calendar days after the Step Two meeting.

10.4 Step Three

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved in Step Two of the procedure, the grievance may be appealed in writing to the Company within five (5) calendar days after receipt of the answer in Step Two, above. The written appeal shall include the item within the grievance that is not satisfactorily resolved with the reason(s) why it has not been satisfactorily resolved. The Program Manager or his/her designated representative, and a representative of the Company will meet with the Union Business Manager or Business Representative and the Steward within five (5) calendar days following the receipt of the appeal to Step Three. A written response to the grievance will be given by the Company to the Union Business Manager and to the Steward within ten (10) calendar days after the Step Three meeting.

In the event the Union is dissatisfied with the Company's final disposition, the grievance may be appealed to Arbitration in accordance with Article 11 of this Agreement.

10.5 Witnesses

By mutual agreement of the parties, witnesses may appear at meetings provided in Steps Two and Three of the Grievance procedure.

10.6 General Provisions

- (a) In the event of failure by the Union to appeal any grievance within the time limits provided in this Article, the case shall be considered settled on the basis of the answer or disposition so made, and the Company will have no responsibility to further consider the grievance.
- (b) In no event shall a decision or award upon a grievance be made effective retroactively for any period prior to the date the grievance was filed, except in respect to a complaint or grievance relating to a payroll check, in which case the Company shall immediately adjust a grievant paycheck within two working days, or as soon as possible and in accordance with State and Federal laws, from the discovery of the error.
- (c) Periods within which any of the acts required in this Article are to be performed may be extended by written agreement between the Company and the Union Business Manager or his/her designated representative. Reasonable requests for extensions shall be considered. In computing the time within which said acts are required to be performed, scheduled off-duty days shall be excluded.
- (d) The Steward will be permitted to take time off from work, without loss of pay, to discuss grievances as defined in this Article with employee(s) concerned and supervisor(s) involved and to meet with the Company representatives in accordance with responsibilities as outlined in this grievance procedure with no mission interruption.
- (e) Copies of grievance answers shall be sent to the Steward and the Union Business Manager. Such requirement will not delay the grievance procedure.

- (f) The parties agree to act promptly and make every effort to settle a grievance at the lowest possible step. By mutual agreement, the second and third steps may be waived when the grievance involves a termination or suspension and the Union may proceed to initiate Arbitration proceedings.
- (g) Grievances regarding discharges or disciplinary suspensions must be filed within ten (10) calendar days from the date of discharge or the commencement date of the suspension.

ARTICLE 11 - ARBITRATION

11.1 Arbitration Procedure

All Arbitrations are to be conducted with the Prime Contractor. The Arbitration Procedure hereinafter provided shall extend only to those issues, which are herein defined as arbitrable, it must:

- (1) Have been properly and timely processed through the Grievance Procedure.
- (2) Involve the interpretation or application of a specified provision or provisions of this Agreement.
- (3) Not rest on any alleged understanding, practice, or other matter outside the scope of this Agreement.
- (4) Not require the arbitrator, in order to rule in favor of the party requesting arbitration, to exceed the scope of his/her jurisdiction under this Agreement.

11.2 Arbitrability

Unless specified otherwise in this Collective Bargaining Agreement, all matters not resolved in the grievance process outlined in this Agreement are subject to arbitration.

11.3 Notice

Any grievance falling under the scope of this Contract which is not settled in Step Three of the Grievance Procedure (Article 10, Section 10.4), herein may be submitted to an impartial arbitrator in accordance with the terms of these provisions. Notice of intent to appeal any such grievance to the arbitrator shall be filed in writing with the other party within fifteen (15) working days after the final decision has been given by the Company in writing; otherwise, such grievance shall be considered settled.

Representatives of the Union and representatives of the Company will select an arbitrator within thirty (30) days, unless such time is extended by mutual agreement. This process of selection shall be initiated by the Union by requesting the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service to submit a panel of seven (7) names to the parties. All such arbitrators must be members of the National Academy of Arbitrators and/or the American Arbitration Association. The parties shall alternately strike out one (1) name and the last remaining name shall be the Arbitrator for the hearing. The party to strike first shall be the Union and then on subsequent arbitrations requested, the party to strike first shall be alternated between the Union and the Company.

The rules of the American Arbitration Association concerning the conduct of proceedings shall thereby be adopted by the parties. Unless otherwise mutually agreed, each arbitration proceeding shall deal with not more than one (1) issue.

11.4 Arbitrator's Power

The arbitrator shall have no power to add to, subtract from, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement or any other Agreement made supplementary hereto, it being the intent of the parties that the express and specific provisions of this Agreement shall govern the entire relationship of the parties and shall be the sole source of any and all rights or claims which either party may assert against the other.

11.5 Decision of Arbitrator

The decision of the arbitrator upon the issues so submitted to arbitration shall be final and binding upon the parties to this Agreement.

11.6 Arbitration Expense

The cost of the initial selection of the Arbitrator, compensation and expense of the Arbitrator, and the arbitration proceeding, shall be borne equally by the parties.

11.7 Evidence in Arbitration Hearing

The Company and the Union agree that neither of them shall introduce new evidence in the arbitration hearing without notifying the other party at least two (2) working days prior to the hearing.

11.8 Stenographic Transcript

A stenographic transcript of the arbitration hearing shall be made and the cost thereof shall be borne equally by both parties. The selection of the Stenographer shall be mutually agreed upon and shall be selected after dates are confirmed with the Arbitrator.

11.9 Suspension or Discharge Arbitrations

In cases involving disciplinary action, suspension or discharge, the Arbitrator shall within fifteen (15) calendar days of the receipt of the Stenographer's transcript, send their written decision to each of the parties. In cases involving suspension or termination, by mutual consent, the parties may submit post hearing written briefs. Otherwise, arguments shall be made orally. If both parties agree to submit post hearing briefs, both parties shall submit such briefs to the Arbitrator within fifteen (15) calendar days of the close of the hearing. Failure of either party to submit such briefs in the timeframe required shall result in the brief being dismissed and not considered by the Arbitrator.

11.10 Arbitrations

In cases not involving disciplinary action suspension or termination, the Arbitrator shall render a decision and shall within thirty (30) calendar days of the receipt of the Stenographer's transcript, send their written award to each of the parties. Either party is free to submit post hearing briefs if they so desire. If either party elects to submit post hearing briefs, the party submitting must make it known during the arbitration hearing of their intent to do so. Either party electing to submit such briefs shall do so to the Arbitrator within fifteen (15) calendar days of the close of the hearing. Failure of either party to submit such briefs in the timeframe required or failure to notify the other party of their intent to submit briefs shall result in the brief being dismissed and not considered by the Arbitrator.

ARTICLE 12 - SENIORITY

12.1 Definitions

(a) Company Seniority

Company seniority is defined as the length of an employee's unbroken service with the Company since the date of employment or reemployment, whichever is later. Company seniority shall apply for the purposes of determining PTO allowance credit eligibility.

(b) Bargaining Unit Seniority

Bargaining Unit seniority is defined as the length of a current employee's unbroken assignment on the Point Mugu Naval Installation, Prospect Harbor Maine Naval Installation, Finegayan, Guam Installation, and Schriever SFB Colorado Springs, Colorado, and the successor contractors on the above military installations.

Bargaining Unit seniority shall apply for purposes of layoff, bumping, shift selection, and recalls as provided in this Agreement. All positions require qualified candidates as determined by the Program Manager or Assistant Program Manager.

12.2 Probationary Period

New employees shall be on probationary status for ninety (90) calendar days from date of hire. Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period seniority shall be credited from the date of hire. Any employee with less than ninety (90) calendar days of service who, in the sole opinion of the Company is not performing satisfactorily, shall be subject to disciplinary action up to termination. It is understood between both parties that all Satellite Operator I probationary periods shall be nine (9) calendar months.

12.3 Bargaining Unit Promotions and Transfers

An employee who desires consideration for an available bargaining unit job opening, at any location, shall submit an application online as specified by the Company, stating his/her qualifications and the position for which he/she is applying. The Company will consider all applications on the basis of skill, ability, experience, performance, quality of work, conduct, and adherence to work rules and attendance in making selections for filling available bargaining unit positions. When qualified employees exist and all such factors are equal as determined by the Program Manager, then bargaining unit seniority will be the governing factor.

All applications submitted to open bargaining unit positions will be reviewed and considered by the Company. Disputes arising between the parties as to the interpretation and/or application of this section shall be subject to the grievance procedure. The Company will then notify the Union and all current bargaining unit applicants within ten (10) calendar days of the resulting decision. Employees transferred or promoted into a new classification must work in the classification for a minimum of six (6) months (excluding progression within a classification) before they are eligible for promotion or transfer to a different classification. This 6-month minimum provision may be waived by mutual agreement of the Company and the Union.

An employee who has seniority in a classification within the bargaining unit, and who is subsequently transferred to a non-bargaining unit position within the Company, shall be deemed to have retained seniority rights as of the date of transfer or promotion in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement for a period of two (2) years from the date of transfer or promotion, minus any time in a non-bargaining unit position. If, in the opinion of the Company, it becomes necessary or advisable to return him/her to a position within the Bargaining Unit, all seniority rights accrued before such transfer or promotion will be restored within this two (2) year period. In no case shall he/she displace any member of the Unit.

12.4 Layoff

- (a) When it becomes necessary to reduce the work force the least senior employee(s) in the classification(s) will be laid off in their respective geographical work location. Where there are two employees in the same classification who have the same bargaining unit seniority date, the employee with the last four of their social security number who is the lowest shall be considered most senior. The Company reserves the right to exercise its Management Rights as outlined in Article 5.
- (b) An employee who is laid off under the provisions of sub-section (a) above may displace an employee with the least Bargaining Unit seniority in any equal or lower rated occupational classification provided the employee who is laid off has greater Bargaining Unit seniority than the employee being displaced and is qualified to perform the work. Employees in one classification attempting to displace into another classification must have the requisite certification.
- (c) The exercise of seniority rights in this section is dependent upon the individual employee's ability to perform the available work.

12.5 Recalls/Return from Downgrade

When the work force is increased following a layoff, employees will be recalled to any full time/non-temporary occupational classification provided that they have the qualifications and ability to perform the available work. This shall be done in accordance with the employee's official bargaining unit seniority as defined in Article 12.1 section (b).

This provision shall also apply where the employee is working in a downgraded position as a result of the displacement procedure set forth in Section 12.4 (b).

12.6 Breaking of Seniority

The following shall cause a break in seniority as defined in Section 12.1:

- (a) Resignation
- (b) Discharge or Termination
- (c) Layoff for a period of equal to the employee's seniority or for one (1) year, whichever is less. To retain seniority, however, an employee must register with a written and signed letter of intent with the Company by certified mail, email, or hand deliver in person to Human Resources at least once each one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days following his/her layoff. If not registered, his/her seniority shall terminate.
- (d) Failure to notify the Company within ten (10) working days after a recall notice has been sent by certified return receipt mail, or failure to report to work within five (5) working days of such notice.
- (e) If the employee engages in other gainful employment without Company approval while on approved leave of absence.
- (f) Failure to report to work within three (3) consecutive working days following expiration of an approved leave of absence.
- (g) Settlement is reached with employee for total disability.
- (h) The employee retires.
- (i) If the employee is absent from work, for three (3) consecutive days without proper notification or approval from the Program Manager or Assistant Program Manager.
- (j) If the employee fails to supply the Company with justification for the need of a Medical Leave of Absence within five (5) working days after the last day worked.
- (k) The employee is unable to return by the end of the reinstatement period as referenced in Article 19.4 (Medical Leave of Absence).

12.7 Seniority on Recall

An employee who has been laid off less than 1 year, and who has been recalled and accepted for active full time/non-temporary employment with the Company, will receive full credit for the Bargaining Unit seniority during the period of layoff, however benefits will not accrue during the period of layoff. An employee recalled after a three (3) month absence will require recertification of Satellite Operators and maintenance technicians (see Article 19.6).

12.8 Seniority in Assignment of Shifts

Bargaining Unit Seniority in each classification shall be the determining factor in the assignment of employees to shifts and days off. All employees may request a shift and days off change no later than October 1 of each year. The new shift and days off schedule will be implemented on January 1 of the following year.

ARTICLE 13 - TEMPORARY TRANSFER AND ASSIGNMENT

13.1 Temporary Transfers

In order to meet varied work requirements of the operation, it may be necessary to temporarily transfer employees from one classification to another related classification due to absenteeism, to fill vacancies, or to meet increased work requirements. To the extent practicable, such assignment should be within the general area of knowledge and skill of the employee's current classification. It is understood, however, that no employee shall be temporarily transferred for periods, which when accumulated, exceed thirty (30) days in any ninety (90) day period. When such transfers are made, employees shall be paid their regular rate of pay or the rate of the new classification, whichever is higher, for all hours worked. When such temporary transfers are made for five (5) or more working days, the employee's personnel file will be documented with a copy of such documentation to the union.

13.2 Temporary Assignments (not to exceed five (5) consecutive working days)

Employees may be temporarily assigned to perform duties to another related classification and may be assigned duties that are supplemental or incidental to the primary duties of another classification. When such assignments are made, employees shall be paid their regular rate of pay or the rate of the new classification, whichever is higher, for all hours worked.

It is understood that the Company shall not use temporary transfers or assignments on a continuous and recurring basis to avoid filling a bona fide permanent vacancy in a classification.

13.3 Temporary Location Reassignment

In order to meet operational requirements, it may be necessary to temporarily assign employees to another geographical location. These assignments shall be offered by seniority to qualified employees on a rotational basis. In the event of insufficient volunteers, the company will assign the work to the least senior Operations Technician Specialist employee. The employee will be compensated at their current rate of pay or the pay that is higher in the geographical location assigned, whichever is higher. These assignments may not be more than two (2) weeks consecutively and not more than ninety (90) days in a calendar year unless mutually agreed to in advance by the employee and the company.

ARTICLE 14 - GENERAL PAY

14.1 Classifications and Wages

A schedule of classifications and wages for the term of this Agreement is attached hereto as Appendix "A" and by this reference made a part hereof. It is expressly understood that the sole purpose of this schedule is to fix the rates of pay for employees in the various classifications. Appendix "A" shall have no other effect on the rights of the parties to this Agreement. The Company agrees that employees shall be properly classified in accordance with positions for which they are qualified and the work they are performing.

- (a) To be entitled to a classification, an employee must regularly and independently perform work operations which are an integral part of and representative of his/her normal and typical assignment and the requirements of the classification.
- (b) An employee will not be required to consistently do work in more than one classification at a time. However, it is recognized that an employee may perform some of the work of higher rated classifications in order to qualify for advancement and may perform some of the work of lower rated classifications when required. The normal duties of an employee may include some of the work of comparable classifications and may include assistance to other employees in other classifications. No employee shall have the right to refuse to perform assigned work.

14.2 New Classification

When work operations involving new or substantially changed requirements result in the modification of classifications after the effective date of this Agreement the Company shall notify the Union of its intentions in writing and all such new or modifications to the existing job classifications shall be subject to the bargaining process. If such actions fail to meet the satisfaction of the Union on the rate(s) of pay, then the matter may be made the subject of a grievance and appealed to arbitration as provided for in Article 10 and Article 11 of this Agreement. In no case shall any current employee's rate of pay be reduced as a result of such modification.

14.3 Bereavement Pay

An employee shall be excused from work and suffer no loss of pay for up to three (3) regular working days to arrange for or attend the funeral of a member of the immediate family. If the employee has to travel in excess of 350 miles from their home location for funeral services or arrangements the employee may be granted two (2) additional working days off with pay. The employee shall furnish the Company satisfactory evidence of such death and funeral location if the employee needs to travel and requires two additional days.

Members of the immediate family shall be defined as: spouse, mother, father, sister, brother, son, daughter, mother-in-law, father-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, stepchild, and stepparent. Management may pay for a greater amount of time if in Management's opinion, a greater amount of time is necessary.

14.4 Jury Duty

6. Any other provision of this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding it is the intent of the Company and Union that employees who are scheduled to work overtime shall be expected to work the overtime required provided, however, that if an employee has a justifiable reason, which is acceptable to the Company, for not working the scheduled overtime and the employee makes his/her reason known to his/her supervisor at the time the supervisor schedules the overtime work, the employee shall be excused from the overtime assignment and charged with a refusal under the provisions of Article 16 of this Agreement.

- (a) An employee called to work or permitted to report to work as scheduled, without having been given reasonable notice that there will be no work, shall be given at least two (2) hours work, or if less than two (2) hours work is assigned, shall be paid two (2) hours pay at the applicable rate, except that if work is unavailable, as a result of a strike or other causes reasonably beyond the control of the Company, such as fire, explosion, general disaster, failure of power lines or utilities, or acts of God, no pay need be made. If an employee is not required to work a full two (2) hours for the call-in period, but is required to work a full shift thereafter, those call-in hours paid but not worked shall be credited towards the remaining work hours in the employee's shift and all hours worked on the regular shift in excess of the call-in hours shall be paid at the employee's regular straight-time rate of pay. Employees may go negative on their PTO balance as long as it does not exceed forty (40) hours, upon prior approval by the Program Manager (PM) and Company Human Resources Manager.

Employees, in Company Seniority order, shall begin scheduling their PTO on October 1 of each year for the following January-December use year. With appropriate justification, these requirements may be waived by the Program Manager.

Employees may request and be paid for any portion of accrued PTO at the end of the fiscal year. Accrued PTO above 128 hours at the end of the fiscal year will automatically be paid out.
